

ANDREAS KRATZ

INSPIRATION & FRESH ENERGY
CONDUCTING & COACHING
COMPETITION & TEAM WORK

If your band, orchestra or group is looking to develop certain skills; needs to find new joy in playing together; needs a guest conductor for a special project or if you're looking for some new input and inspiration - then Andreas is the one to invite.

Andreas has 15 years of experience in working as a musician at the Gothenburg Opera (Göteborgsoperan) and was in 2018 the first Swedish person to conduct a Brass Band at the National Brass Band Championships of Great Britain in The Royal Albert Hall in London, UK.

He is often hired as a guest conductor, inspirer and coach. He has been a judge at a number of competitions and conducted several brass bands and wind bands in Europe.

Here is what a few others have said about him:

Thinking 'out of the box' is certainly the norm for Swedish born artist and musician Andreas Kratz. He possesses a plurality of talents motivated by his contagious desire to bring together passionate and likeminded people seeking to share in the pursuit of excellence. Andreas continues to align potential in performance with a genuine sense of accountability and belief in the ethos that All things are possible!.

David King

Professional Conductor
Professor Emeritus Salford University of Music

Andreas and I studied the Trombone for the same teacher - Ingemar Roos. There we both got what we needed to move on in the music world

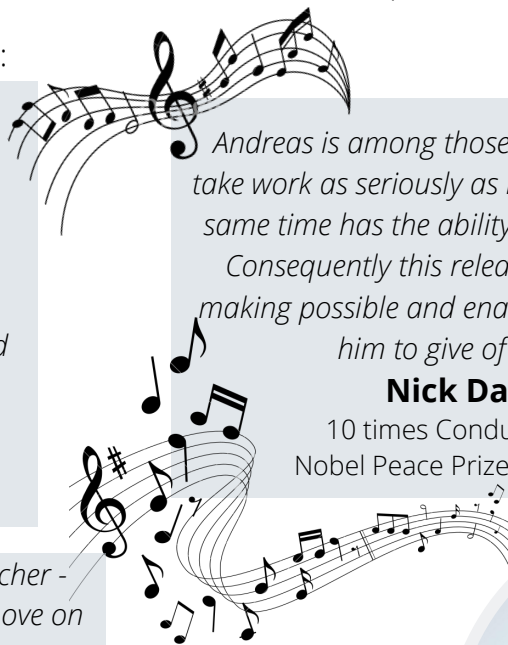

Nils Landgren

Trombone colleague and friend

Andreas is for me a true artist of life. His natural ability and presence is inspiring in both group and individual conversations. Andreas basic values and liberating confidence in other people's ability to develop is superb. The genuine leadership with the communicative straightness Andreas has, combined with a big heart, creates a liberating open atmosphere where he challenges both himself and others. I highly recommend Andreas.

Rino Wennerholm

Organizational consultant, executive facilitator and leader developer. Rino Senses AB

Andreas is among those rare musicians that take work as seriously as is necessary but at the same time has the ability to have fun doing it! Consequently this releases the finest music making possible and enables everyone around him to give of their best.

Nick Davies,

10 times Conductor of the
Nobel Peace Prize Concert, Oslo

Andreas is a Yamaha artist
